Tour

Horse Riding through the jungle

Starting at 4pm down at Reception you will meet with a local guide where you will be brought to your horse and take a leisurely ride through the Jungle, and finishing back here before 6pm in time to see the sunset.

A great tour for those who want to try horse riding and also a good chance to see different species of monkeys as well as other wildlife.

For a little bit extra you have the option to go to the beach via the river if you are looking for more adventure. This tour leaves at 3.30.

Price is 90k or 100k for the beach

Bunkuany

Looking for a fun hiking adventure? Bunkuany is a recently rediscovered ancient city ruins up in the midst of Sierra Nevada with stunning nature, a similar look & feel to the Lost City, and is considered very sacred by the local indigenous communities.

Starting at 8am down at reception where you will meet your expert local guide, you will be brought on a short trip on the local bus to where you will start your hike.

From there you will start the climb uphill where on the way the guide will teach you about the origin of the city & about the local indigenous peoples' connection to it.

The trek will take between 2-3 hours depending on the group & will include planned stops for rest, with a chance to see wildlife in the trees.

Once you arrive at the top you will have a chance to relax & grab a drink, & after you will be taken around the ruins & see firsthand the sacred relics of the area. Later you will be served lunch, & after that you will head back down the trail where you will stop at a spot to swim & cool down.

Following that you continue down until you reach the main road where you will take the local bus back to the Hostel & be back in time for dinner.

Price 150k pp plus the Guide fee of 180k, however the guide fee can be split between the group.

Salttillo Waterfall & Tubing

A great tour for groups who want to enjoy a hidden gem in nature without big crowds. Starting at 8.30 down at reception you will meet your local expert guide who will bring you on a short journey on the local bus. From there you will walk along the river for a few minutes to where you will pick up your inflatable rings.

You will then be led on a beautiful trail in nature until you reach a small farm, along the way the guide will explain about the sacred history of the area.

There you leave your rings and head more uphill into the jungle, until you reach the top of the hill & head down into the waterfall.

After a while of chilling there you come back down the hill & collect your rings & get into the river where you will float downstream to where you started.

From there you head back with your guide to take the bus back here for early afternoon in time for lunch.

There is also the option for those who just want to do Tubing, this can be arranged anytime during the day for those who prefer a shorter tour later in the day & will involve the same transport & guide.

Price: Waterfall & Tubing 100k
